SAMPLE CONTRACT

This is an agreement between Roy Tennant, proprietor of FreeLargePhotos.com, and _____, hereinafter referred to as "photographer".

Photographs will be submitted for inclusion on FreeLargePhotos.com in formats and by a procedure agreed to by all parties. Present requirements are a thumbnail no larger than 300 pixels on the longest dimension, and a full-size display version no larger than 1200 pixels on the longest dimension. A full resolution version is also required but will not be available online, of at least 4 MP. Descriptive information (title, subjects, an optional description) must be submitted with each photo in a format to be specified. Each file will be named according to a formula based on a sequential number beginning with _____ (e.g., thumbnail _____s.jpg, large online version, _____l.jpg, master _____.jpg). Roy Tennant reserves the right to refuse photographs or to adjust descriptive terminology as required to fit with the site. Photo size requirements may be adjusted by mutual agreement.

Full resolution versions will be provided by request to individuals for personal use only; for commercial use USD$50 will be charged for a non-exclusive license. Roy Tennant will retain a 20% fee and remit the remainder to the photographer within a week. Fees may be adjusted as agreed to by all parties subject to this agreement.

The photographer retains all rights to his or her photographs, including licensing or selling them to others, and by this agreement grants a non-exclusive license to Roy Tennant and FreeLargePhotos.com to use the photos as defined in this agreement for as long as this agreement is in force.

This agreement can be nullified by any party with a 30-day notice, at which point all properties will be returned to their respective owners.
